

Investor Retirement Visa Endorsement Application Form

To be eligible to apply for Tasmanian state visa endorsement, you must first meet all the applicable requirements set out by the Department of Immigration and Citizenship \(DIAC\). You must assess your visa eligibility prior to seeking nomination.

It is highly unlikely that visa nomination will be granted to applicants who have not visited Tasmania and met with a member of the Department of Economic Development, Tourism and the Arts (the Department) Business and Skilled Migration Unit.

To avoid processing delays, the following documents must be included with this endorsement application

- DIAC Form 1249, with the relevant sections completed
- A short curriculum vitae (CV), outlining your recent business experience
- Evidence of your assets available to transfer to Tasmania
- A copy of your passport photo page

Note that this application form must be completed in English; there is no fee charged by the Tasmanian Government for visa endorsement; and any documents submitted which are not required for your application assessment will be destroyed.

Endorsements from the Tasmanian Government are valid for six (6) months, and are not transferable to any other State or Territory. If you are unable to lodge your visa application within the stipulated timeframe, you may be required to lodge a fresh application for endorsement.

State visa endorsement does not mean that a visa will automatically be granted. You must satisfy various visa requirements set by DIAC, which include health and character checks. The Tasmanian Government is not responsible for issuing visas.

You must inform the Business and Skilled Migration unit of any change to your circumstances, from the time you lodge your endorsement application to the time you arrive in Tasmania.
